

Huddersfield Royal Infirmary New A&E

The new A&E at HRI will be opening for patient care at 12:01am on Wednesday 22 May 2024. The building is located on South Drive next to the hospital – see map, left. The old A&E – on North Drive – will then close. The new A&E will continue to provide the same full range of care and services for patients.

It's your A&E – please only attend if you really need to

Please only come to A&E if you need immediate care for something that is very serious or life-threatening, so that we can focus on patients who need it most.
